Instructions for Completing Weekly Claim for UI Benefits

You must file a weekly claim each week. A determination will not be made until you file a weekly claim. All weekly claims are for a calendar week which starts at 12:01 a.m. Sunday and ends at 12:00 midnight on the following Saturday. Weekly claims cannot be filed until after the calendar week has ended.

Below is a brief explanation for each of the questions you will be required to answer each week.

1. Were you able to work and available for work each regular workday?

Able to work - You are able to work if you have no mental or physical condition that prevents you from working or accepting work.

Available for work - You are available for work if you do not have any restrictions that would prevent you from looking for or accepting full-time work when offered.

2. Did you look for work? (You MUST report your work search. Four (4) job contacts are required.)

Actively seeking work – You must make an active effort to seek work that you are suited for by experience, education and training. You must look for work on four different days of the week. Include the employer's name and address or website URL (www.example.com). General inquiries and phone calls should be accompanied by follow-ups, which may include submissions of applications and resumes. If you conduct your work search online, retain electronic copies of e-mail exchanges and/or other electronic evidence as part of your work search records.

3. Did you refuse any job offer or referral to work?

Refusing a job offer or referral to work – you turned down work that was offered to you or you did not report to an employer that you were referred to from the Employment Service office.

4. Did you work or earn any money, including part-time work?

The department regularly matches hiring information with employer records. Failure to report earnings may result in prosecution and payment of restitution. (If YES, you must answer 4a. and 4b.)

4a. What were your gross earnings before deductions?

If you performed any work or earned any money you must report it on your weekly claim. You must report the total amount earned before deductions. Wages must be reported the week in which the work is performed even if you have not been paid yet.

4b. Are you still working?

NO – Lack of work or a Reduction in force – laid off, no more work was available

Quit – Voluntarily left employment

Fired, discharged or Let go – Misconduct

Labor Dispute – A dispute or disagreement which results in a strike or lockout at the place of employment.

The department will confirm that a labor dispute exists.

5. Have you returned to full-time work which will not require you to file any further weekly claims at this time?

Failure to disclose that you have returned to work may result in prosecution and payment of restitution.

YES - that you are working and earning an income in excess of your weekly benefit amount and do not have to file a weekly claim.

NO - you are still unemployed and wish to continue filing a weekly claim.

6. Do you choose to skip filing for the week because you did not meet the work search requirements in #2 above?

If you did not look for work or meet the required contacts, you will be disqualified until you are reemployed and earn eight times your weekly benefit amount. You have the option to skip filing for the week. If you skip filing for the week you will not receive benefits for the week. You will be able to file next week.

7. Did you start school or training?

YES - I started school or training.

NO - I did not start school or training.

8. Are you currently receiving unemployment benefits from Canada?

YES - you are receiving unemployment Compensation from Canada.

NO - you are not receiving unemployment Compensation from Canada.
